Le nouvel an chinois

Le nouvel an chinois pour les chinois c'est un peu près comme Noël pour nous. Ils fêtent le nouvel an pendant 15 jours!

La légende dit que le monstre de Nian rôdait autour des village une nuit par an et c'est pour cela que les chinois décorent leurs portes avec des bandes rouges sur lesquelles ils ont calligraphié des vers d'un poème pour leur porter chance. Ces bandes rouges sont censées leur porter bonheur, chance et les protéger contre ce monstre.

La fête du nouvel an commence avec un grand repas chez les grands parents paternels, le lendemain c'est un autre repas mais chez les grands parents maternelles. C'est les diners des retrouvailles. Durant ses repas il se peut qu'on offre de l'argent et des cadeaux.

Au troisième jour c'est le jour de la danse du lion.

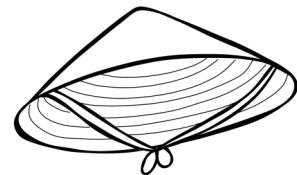

Au septième jour c'est encore l'heure du repas puis au 15eme jour c'est la fête des lanternes avec des grandes parades et des danses du dragon. Il y a beaucoup de feux d'artifices et des feux de joie qu'eux aussi étaient là pour faire peur au monstre du Nian.
